A professor walks into a classroom...
Thank you
Hank,
from the bottom of our paws!
This joke/memory book has been compiled to honor Dr. Hank Cole for his 24 years of faithful service to Butler University College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences.

Hank loves a good Oxymoron

Good Morning???

Every morning, praise the Lord!
Laurie Pylitt:
As far as Hank, frequently when I see him in the hallway (and I’m sure this happens to others as well!) he says ‘Did you hear the one about...’

A new family moved into the neighborhood and the kids are playing outside with the other neighbor kids. One kid asks the new kid, “What does your dad do for a living?” He says, “My dad doesn’t work. He’s a congressman.” The neighbor kid says, “Honest?”
The new kid replies, “No, dishonest just like the rest of them.”

Bruce D. Clayton:
Hank’s favorite scientific journal and the primary source for his lectures for the last 40 years: The Journal of Irreproducible Results!!

Kim Beck:
What cheese is made backwards? (EDAM)
And...
If you’re not part of the solution, you’re part of the precipitate!

Kate Taube-Osborn:
Hank proved to me that I am still trainable...I know not to wish him a “Good Morning!”. Instead; I say “Morning!” and we have a laugh to start our days! Thank you
Danielle Stone:
I always loved going to his review sessions!! Every time he would play some funny song or video or show a funny document! This was very refreshing right before exam day!! Dr. Cole had such a good sense of humor and he always did his best to help his students!! He will be missed by all of his current and former students!! Those who didn't have the privilege of taking one of his courses really missed out on a getting to know such a great professor who was very passionate about helping his students succeed!! I really enjoyed hearing about Dr. Cole's history with Cancer. He is a great inspiration to all of his students!!! I loved how the day before exams, Dr. Cole would respond to lots of questions about the exam material. This shows a lot of devotion to his students. It was also humorous to see what he titled the emails!! "More Exam Questions," "And More Exam Questions," "And Even More Exam Questions" "And the last (I Hope) Exam Questions!" Dr. Cole was always so friendly to students! I especially loved hearing someone ask how he was doing, and if it was after his lecture he would respond, "It's getting better now!"

Dawn Pearson:
Hank is like a Gremlin…but reverse, DO give him chocolate and red wine any time of day and he’s a happy professor!

Hank also says that the five food groups are: white chocolate, milk chocolate, dark chocolate, semi-sweet chocolate, and bitter sweet chocolate, and everyone knows that you have to have eat all five food groups EVERY day!
Hank loves this quote from Winston Churchill: “I may be drunk, Miss, but in the morning I will be sober and you will still be ugly.”

Brenda Caudill:
Also, at the start of each meeting Hank is a member of...his first statement is “I move to adjourn.”

Paulina Phan:
I just wanted to add that I have greatly enjoyed having him as a professor these past few semesters and his positivity and constant smiling have always brightened up my day whenever I've had class with him!
